

Gunner Winston is Chief Executive Officer of dosist, a position he assumed in April 2017. He is responsible for the company's overall vision, strategy and guiding decisions to ensure the organization's financial health. He is also a member of the company's board of directors.

Gunner has a background in entrepreneurship and finance – spending over a decade building his own investment funds, growing teams, and collaborating with and investing in many of the world's most successful brands. Prior to dosist, Gunner co-founded Merchants' Gate LP, an asset management firm in New York City with peak AUM of $2.4bn. He also served as a partner and financial analyst at the Ospraie Fund, a multi-strategy fund with AUM up to $9bn. He began his career as an investment banking analyst at Morgan Stanley shortly after earning his bachelor's degree in business administration and a postgraduate degree in public administration (MPA) from New York University.

Gunner Winston

Chief Executive Officer

Josh Campbell is President of dosist. He joined the company in August 2017. He is responsible for connecting the company's strategy and execution while continuing to grow and further develop the business.

Josh has excelled at introducing global brands and growing successful retail businesses in the Canadian market. He joined dosist from the Amplifon Group, a world leader in wellness technology treating hearing loss, where he served as managing director of Canada. Before that, Josh was vice president of retail at Saje Natural Wellness, a Vancouver-based contemporary wellness retailer. At Starbucks he oversaw retail development in the Canadian market. Josh graduated with honors from Wilfrid Laurier University with a bachelor of business administration and is a Certified Management Accountant (CPA, CMA).

Josh Campbell

President

then to be an

Katrina Basic is Chief Financial Officer of dosist. She joined the team in January 2017. She is responsible for financial planning, human resources, compliance, risk management, and investor relations.

Katrina has a history of guiding companies through critical growth and expansion periods – including leading the initial public offering and successful follow-on offerings of Zumiez, a global retail chain. Katrina has held financial leadership roles at several private equity-backed retail consumer companies, including Planet Blue, 5.11 Tactical, iFLOOR and Unionbay Sportswear. Katrina earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Washington State University.

Katrina Basic

Chief Financial Officer

the team

Anne-Marie Dacyshyn

Chief Marketing Officer

Anne-Marie Dacyshyn is the Chief Marketing Officer of dosist. She joins the company in July 2018 and will lead all marketing efforts to ensure the brand is brought to life in an innovative, disruptive and consistent fashion.

Anne-Marie has deep experience and passion for business, brand management, sports and fashion. She joins dosist from Burton where she most recently served as Chief Marketing Officer. During her 16 years at Burton, Anne-Marie worked in a number of different capacities ranging from product development and merchandising to brand, public relations and direct-to-consumer. She helped lead and form global marketing groups across brand, events & partnerships, retail, public relations, creative and digital. Her academic background includes a bachelor's degree in political science from the University of Toronto and a post graduate degree in public relations from Humber College.

SoYoung Park

Chief Innovation Officer

SoYoung Park is Chief Innovation Officer of dosist. She joined the company in November 2017 and is responsible for driving new product development and leading the company's research and science initiatives.

SoYoung sits at the intersection of business and creativity and is an expert in building and growing diverse teams that drive innovation and change through product development. Before dosist, SoYoung served as part of the leadership team at world-renowned international design and consulting firm, IDEO's office in Palo Alto. SoYoung began exploring both the business and creative sides of filmmaking at Universal Pictures, Disney Pictures & Television, and a production company at Warner Bros. Her academic background includes a degree in psychology and an MBA, both from Harvard University.

Greg Chambers

VP of Digital Commerce

Greg Chambers is Vice President – Digital Commerce of dosist. He joins the company in June 2018 and will lead the digital strategy for the company including digital commerce, digital activations and new digital initiatives / innovations.

Greg has envisioned, implemented and measured sustained digital growth solutions across the globe. Most recently Greg served as the Global Group Director of Digital Innovation at The Coca-Cola Company. He has an intense understanding and history of creating digital solutions around big data, artificial intelligence, eCommerce and the Cloud. While at Coca-Cola Greg was the principal architect / strategist for the Coca-Cola Digital Product Suite and was responsible for digitizing Coca-Cola's historic signage program.

Lenny Louis

Senior VP of Canada

Lenny Louis is the Senior Vice President of Canada at dosist. He joined the company in August 2018 and leads the Canadian organization.

Prior to joining dosist, Lenny was the Country Director of Tesla Canada where he was responsible for leading the team to double-digit quarterly revenue growth, transforming the customer experience to make Canada one of the top performing regions and more than doubled the number of Tesla locations in the country. Prior to that, Lenny was the Vice President for SAP Ariba where he successfully grew the business over 3x within two years. Lenny also spent 12 years at Microsoft after earning a honors bachelor of science in computer science from the University of Toronto.

the team

Gunner Winston

Chief Executive Officer

Gunner Winston is Chief Executive Officer of dosist, a position he assumed in April 2017. He is responsible for the company's overall vision, strategy and guiding decisions to ensure the organization's financial health. He is also a member of the company's board of directors.

Gunner has a background in entrepreneurship and finance – spending over a decade building his own investment funds, growing teams, and collaborating with and investing in many of the world's most successful brands. Prior to dosist, Gunner co-founded Merchants' Gate LP, an asset management firm in New York City with peak AUM of $2.4bn. He also served as a partner and financial analyst at the Ospraie Fund, a multi-strategy fund with AUM up to $9bn. He began his career as an investment banking analyst at Morgan Stanley shortly after earning his bachelor's degree in business administration and a postgraduate degree in public administration (MPA) from New York University.

Josh Campbell

President

Josh Campbell is President of dosist. He joined the company in August 2017. He is responsible for connecting the company's strategy and execution while continuing to grow and further develop the business.

Josh has excelled at introducing global brands and growing successful retail businesses in the Canadian market. He joined dosist from the Amplifon Group, a world leader in wellness technology treating hearing loss, where he served as managing director of Canada. Before that, Josh was vice president of retail at Saje Natural Wellness, a Vancouver-based contemporary wellness retailer. At Starbucks he oversaw retail development in the Canadian market. Josh graduated with honors from Wilfrid Laurier University with a bachelor of business administration and is a Certified Management Accountant (CPA, CMA).

Katrina Basic

Chief Financial Officer

Katrina Basic is Chief Financial Officer of dosist. She joined the team in January 2017. She is responsible for financial planning, human resources, compliance, risk management, and investor relations.

Katrina has a history of guiding companies through critical growth and expansion periods – including leading the initial public offering and successful follow-on offerings of Zumiez, a global retail chain. Katrina has held financial leadership roles at several private equity-backed retail consumer companies, including Planet Blue, 5.11 Tactical, iFLOOR and Unionbay Sportswear. Katrina earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Washington State University.